

GIRL TALKS OF POWDERS GIVEN HER BY REV. HOFER.

Sensational case in Circuit Court in Which Former Priest is Defendant - Lawyers Dig for Details and get them.

Holding her two months' old child in her arms Miss Bertha Taylor sat in the witness chair in circuit court this morning and told her story against Rev. James Hofer, the Catholic priest accused by her of a statutory offense.

With hesitancy the complaining witness told the court and jurors of the wrong which had been done her while, she alleged, she was under the influence of powders, in the priest's home.

She said she went there to get religious instruction every Friday afternoon. The priest, she alleged, always locked the door and after some preliminary instruction gave her a powder. She knew of nothing that occurred while she was under the influence of the powder and usually came to find herself sitting in a chair in the priest's office just outside his bedroom. On five consecutive Fridays she said she went through this experience and did not realize that anything had occurred while she was unconscious.

Each time upon awaking the priest, she alleged, said to her "Don't tell of your faith or you will lose your religion."

On the sixth Friday, witness said,

CHILDERS INDICTED

Grand Jury Holds Him for Trial.

The U. S. grand jury this afternoon completed its deliberations and returned an indictment against former Turnkey J. M. Childers, under which he will be tried on a charge of liberating federal prisoners from the county jail. A large list of other indictments in various cases were returned, but the list is kept in secrecy by the authorities until after the arrest of the indicted men.

It is believed Childers will demand an immediate trial and that his case will come up within a week. He will be represented by Attorney L. W. Gosnell and C. L. Hood. If he desires a continuance the case will be held over until December term of court when he will be tried at Madison.

In the minds of twenty men sitting as grand jurors in the United States court in this city the fate of J. M. Childers, charged with assisting United States prisoners to escape from the county jail, is already sealed insofar as returning any indictment against him is concerned.

Six witnesses testified before the grand jury in the case of the government against Mr. Childers, today and the jury has already made up its mind whether or not to return an indictment against him. The result of the deliberations will not be known, however, until the grand jury finishes its labors, which may not be for two or three days yet, or on the other hand which may be terminated suddenly at any time.

The grand jury are autocrats over their own proceedings, neither the United States judge nor district attorney having any power over the deliberations. The district attorney simply presents evidence to prove that a crime has been committed and shows up the indications pointing to the guilt of the person or persons under arrest. The guilt of the prisoner does not have to be shown to warrant returning an indictment against the person. If there is any circumstance shown which indicates the person may be guilty an indictment is returned. It is up to the petit jury, before whom the person is tried, to adjudge the accused guilty or innocent.

Postoffice Inspector Fraser, Sheriff Haugen, Undersheriff Scott, and three prisoners at the county jail, Aird, Steiner and Crane were the witnesses called before the grand jury in the Childers case this morning.

MULTITUDES IN- CREASE FAIR RECEIPTS.

TONIGHT DOWNTOWN.

Four big free shows—Tramp juggler; Flying Julians; Comedy sketch; The Great Reno, high wire artist.

Three bands playing continuously.

Grand artillery and military parade.

Vast crowds of pretty girls.

THE FAIR TOMORROW.

Fast races, and artillery drill at 3 p. m.

The fair today was the greatest in point of attendance in the history of the association. It is estimated by the officers there were between 15,000 and 20,000 people on the grounds today.

Excursion trains brought visitors from all directions and three bands, the Viroqua, Dana's and Kreutz's helped to make things lively downtown in the morning and at the grounds in the afternoon. The Viroqua band is one of the best in the state and was everywhere enthusiastically received.

The program of races for today and the sham battle between the companies of the First battalion, W. N. G., comprising companies B and M of La Crosse, K of Sparta and I. of Tomah, were rare attractions and the grandstand was packed during the afternoon.

Judging is going on full blast in all departments this afternoon and will probably be completed by tomorrow.

The usual array of midway attractions is enhanced this year with a miniature railway which girds the exposition building and which attracts a large amount of attention.

All departments are well filled, except perhaps the booths below the grand stand, several of these being left vacant.

The fair directors are certain that with fair weather for the remainder of the week, the exposition will prove the most profitable ever held.

Woman Overcome by Heat.

This afternoon a woman was overcome by heat while in the poultry exhibit house. She was hurried to the La Crosse hospital where she was still unconscious at 4:30, and consequently the fair officers have been unable to learn her identity. She is not in a serious condition and is expected to regain consciousness and recover within a few hours.

Later—When she recovered she gave her name as Alma Graff and her residence as Milwaukee.

The artillery, encamped at the grounds, did not drill this afternoon, that interesting feature being retained for tomorrow.

Evening Attractions.

The most interesting sort of attractions will be shown downtown this evening under the management and auspices of the Merchants' Protective association.

After supper the U. S. artillery will be met at State street and West Avenue by the First battalion, and will be escorted downtown, where there will be a parade.

All three of the bands will be on the downtown streets this evening and the night promises to be a riotous one.

The bands will first play at the stand at Fifth and Main street, where the tramp juggler, Harrigan, will entertain the crowds. The band will then proceed to the stand between Second and Third on Main, where the Flying Julian Brothers will perform their marvelous feats of strength and

The coroner's inquest adjourned to this afternoon in a hope of securing a new witness. The coroner admits he is baffled if only the evidence now at hand is found.

VILLAGE SPORT COMES TO GRIEF

E. D. Emerson Sought to Intimidate to Bartenders

Flourishing a gun for the purpose of intimidating bartenders into setting up drinks, E. D. Emerson has discovered to be an expensive pastime in La Crosse.

Emerson is a young man and comes from a small town in Iowa. He came to the fair with his summer's wages and a big revolver stored away in his trouser's pockets. The first thing he did after reaching the city was to accumulate a very large jag. When sufficiently inspired he began to exhibit his gun and finally acquired a blustering voice which combined with sundry flourishes of the gun he aimed to scare up numerous free drinks. About three minutes after his first effort young Mr. Emerson was on his way to the police station in the grasp of a husky patrolman, a much subdued boy. Judge Hunt this morning cut a hole into his summer's wages to the extent of $17.50 and Mr. Emerson will have to cut short his visit at the fair.

FIGHT DUEL TO DEATH IN A CAR

Deadly Hand to Hand Encounter of two Express Messengers.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 27.—Two men, one a Pacific express messenger on the Wabash rail road and the other a former messenger fought a revolver duel in an express car between Bement and Decatur. Upon reaching this city it was found the express messenger, J. E. Ryan of Chicago, had several bullets in various parts of the body and the other man, named Greene, also of Chicago, was seriously wounded.

Both were taken to hospitals here. The men used packages as barricades. The cause is unknown. Greene entered the car at the station and as soon as the train began to move, began to quarrel, and the shooting continued until others interfered here.

The men were found bleeding and exhausted, watching each other narrowly and seeking a chance to fire again. The hospital authorities say there is little chance of the recovery of either.

KAESIR SLAPS AT CONGRESSMEN

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—The publication in American newspapers of remarks attributed to the kaiser regarding the "Yellow peril" during an audience with American congressmen caused the emperor to accuse the congressmen of a breach of etiquette, a violation of confidence and a lack of appreciation of the honor shown.

The reports of his utterances were sent to Japan and the Japanese minister protested. Von Buelow said the kaiser was misrepresented.

The English View.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The party of American congressmen after visiting the kaiser passed through here and gave the impression the emperor tried to convert them to his views, inimical to Japan. It is believed here the kaiser sought to prejudice them. He was angry when he found his actions a boomerang.

Holds Conference Here today

CONSULTS LAFOLLETTE MEN

Eckern, Morris and Munson Among them--He Denies Mission.

What is regarded by local politicians as the first gun in the campaign of Lieutenant-Governor Davidson for the gubernatorial nomination next year, was fired in this city last night, when Mr. Davidson, together with State Bank Examiner Bergh, arrived in the city and conferred with local administration leaders.

Conferences were held last night at the Stoddard, where they are stopping and at the La Crosse club. This morning there was an important gathering of western Wisconsin administration men in Senator Morris' law office.

This afternoon another conference was held which was attended, in addition to local men, by Senator Munson of Viroqua, and Assemblyman Herman Eckern of Whitehall, both of whom took a prominent part in the proceedings of their respective houses in the last session of the legislature.

Mr. Munson has recently been brought out as a candidate against Congressman Babcock, and it is known here that his candidacy is favored by Governor La Follette.

Mr. Eckern during the last session was chairman of the assembly committee on judiciary, regarded as the most important committee place in the lower house, and took an active part as a floor leader of the administration, in advancing legislation favored by the governor. He is regarded as one of the strongest administration men in this part of the state and is a close friend of Governor La Follette's.

Including the local politicians who attended the conferences today five counties were represented in the meetings, and the importance of any impression they may have secured from conferring with the lieutenant governor will be readily seen.

Mr. Davidson denies he came here for any political purpose; it is his custom to attend the La Crosse fair each year. Nevertheless the conferences he held with leading administration men last night and today were significant to local politicians and caused no end of gossip about the hotels and club today. All of the legislators who attended the conferences here are known to be friendly to the lieutenant governor, although they have not openly avowed their allegiance to him in the coming fight for the governorship. It would not be surprising to hear such declarations, though, when the time arrives to take a stand.

HAS NAT GOODWIN DESERTED BEAU- TIFUL WIFE?

SCANDAL IN THEAT- RICAL LIFE OF N. Y.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A theatrical scandal of large proportion is hinted at in the kidnapping of Miss Flora Parker from Carter De Haven by Nat C. Goodwin before a large audience during the performance at the Victoria theatre, and Miss Maxime Elliot, famous as one of the most beautiful women in the world, is reported to be separated from her comedian husband, Goodwin.

Friends are aiming to keep Goodwin and De Haven from meeting, as each has threatened to injure his enemy on sight. It is rumored that De Haven has challenged Goodwin to a duel.

Miss Parker, who was called out of a box by Goodwin as she sat with De Haven, is having the attention of both Miss Elliott, Goodwin's wife, and Miss Lulu Glaser, De Haven's partner in a sketch at the Knickerbocker. She has kept in seclusion since the exciting clash of admirers.

De Haven, who is a much smaller man than Goodwin, has had the last word in the quarrel.

While the audience gaped in wonder and the performers on the stage were silenced, Goodwin told De Haven he would whip him if he came to the sidewalk, and then swept Miss Parker away in an automobile, with his rival and two friends in hot pursuit.

In front of Miss Parker's residence, at 244 West Forty-fourth street De Haven confronted Goodwin and chal-

"I tried many tonics, but Peruna was the only thing which helped me in the least. After I had taken but a half bottle I felt much better. I continued its use for three weeks and I was completely restored to health, and was able to take up my studies which I had been forced to drop. RIVER BOTTOMS ARE RICH IN CRUDE OIL.

A few miles up the river from Clinton, Ia., on the Illinois shore and not far from the site of the old town of Huntsville, where a few ruined and decaying houses mark the site of a once prosperous little village, crude petroleum in abundance has been found to be contained in the river sand and soil, bubbling jets of the oil betraying the presence of liquid riches awaiting the wells and refiner; and a corporation has been formed known as the Mississippi Valley Development company, capitalized at $100,000 which has for its object the drilling for and refining of this oil, and placing it on the market.

For years fishermen in and about Savanna and other river towns have suspected the presence of oil in the ground between that City and Galena. The bluish scums on the river in various localities gave rise to the idea, but no steps were taken until recently to ascertain whether or not there was oil in the ground in sufficient quantity to pay. Capitalists have leased 2,500 acres of land in the vicinity of the discovery and purpose to begin the work of sinking wells upon it at once. There is considerable excitement in the vicinity of Savanna and Galena over the discovery and all indications are that successful oil exists in paying quantities. Those interested believe that there are unlimited possibilities in the venture, and hope to have the new oil fields of Illinois in full blast before long.

TOLAND DAY AT THE FAIR

This is W. B. U. Day at the fair. It is so named by courtesy of the management, which thus shows its appreciation of the value and importance of the institution. Located at the center of the manufacturers' building, the Toland exhibit was the center of attraction today. Modern business methods, modern equipment, the science of commerce and industry—all these are presented in an intensely interesting way by the Wisconsin Business University exhibit.

Universal Business Knowledge.
The Wisconsin Business University students are thoroughly familiarized with modern office devices; neostyle, rotary mimeograph, graphophone, and the Burroughs adding machine, and all students are taught touch typewriting. In addition, they are taught press copying, indexing, filing and other office duties.

The above are a few of the reasons why the W. B. U. graduates succeed where others fail. Mr. Toland has prepared more than 5,000 young people for first-class positions and assisted them in securing same. That which he has done for others, he can do for you.

Touch System.

One of the most amazing of the things taught in the W. B. U. is the "touch" typewriting system. The pupil is taught to write with absolute accuracy and swiftness without looking at the machine; his eyes are riveted upon his notes, and he manipulates the typewriter keys by the sense of touch. The keys are not marked with characters to direct the hand, but are left perfectly bare. This is one of the modern accomplishments of the up-to-date business educator.

Wonderful "Multi-Cabinets."

The "Multi-Cabinet," is another of the devices of modern business scientists. It is a cabinet designed to do away with cumbersome books, and to have all information so filed as to be at the instant command of the office manager. The multi-cabinets are time saving because they keep all valuable records, whether credits, collections, accounting, advertising, sales, manufacturing, or the filing of documents or letters—in such simple, red-tapeless, get-at-able form that any specific question can be answered and the facts laid on your desk immediately you ask for the information.

Energy-economizing, because the handling of heavy, cumbersome books—disorderly, untidy, dust-collecting letter files—is absolutely avoided; because all attention and effort is directed along a straight line to the information desired, whether it be found on a card, document, catalogue or letter.

Money-making, because they are time-saving and energy-economizing; because they enable you to keep in reliable, accessible form those asset facts concerning your prospective or customers—their rating, past orders, usual terms of payment; your accounts—the live separated from the closed and dead; your advertising—inquiries and orders resulting therefrom; your manufacturing—cost of material in the raw and finished state; all of these facts you can get quickly, conveniently, accurately.

Whatever the business, whatever the profession, there is detail to be handled and there is a Multi-Cabinet way to care for it—a Multi-Cabinet system which eliminates unnecessary detail and simplifies the necessary—a system which returns its initial cost three-fold in its actual saving of time, energy and money.

Talking Time Saved.

The graphophone is another most valuable device in the modern office. It is a machine to which the dictator directs his letters or records. It may be used while the stenographer is busy with other work. When the stenographer is ready to transcribe the matter that has thus been dictated the phonographic feature comes into play, and the machine re-dictates it to the stenographer.

A Clean Job.

The rotary mimeograph also challenges the interest of all people engaged in business. It takes copies of manuscript quickly, accurately, and with such faultless cleanliness that the copies resemble originals. As compared with the old style mimeograph, it is a wonder of modern efficiency and economy. It is of immense value to businessmen and is used in all great business houses.

The Adding Machine.

The adding machine is a fixture in the business world because it assures economy of time, and accuracy, the unfailing nature of which is of great value. The machine simply cannot make a mistake.

Another Feature.

The loose-leaf ledger system is another invention that tends to handiness, and cuts out the cumbersome effects of the old bookkeeping methods. In a word, it permits of the removal and storing of the back leaves of the ledger, keeping the books always down to the live dates and making them light and convenient. The removed pages are kept on file for reference.

Success Explained.

To the enterprise and liberality with which Mr. Toland has provided his school with all these modern equipments, is due the fact that his graduates succeed everywhere. No matter how big the concern, or how extensive its equipment, the student says "yes" when asked if he can operate this or that device. There is nothing known to the science of economical business that is not instilled into the mind of the W. B. U. graduate.

A Little City.

They are taught banking in a bank, they are taught mercantile operations in a mercantile establishment, they are taught every business on earth in every particular sort of business institution. The Toland school is a little city, with its banks, and hardware stores and manufactories, and jobbing houses. It is exactly up-to-date, and deserves the immense success it is attaining in the great Northwest.

The Bijou is the biggest attraction of the week.

A REVOLUTION IN PIANO SELLING

An Event of Rare Occurrence is Taking Place at the Bergh Piano Co.'s, Salesroom,
Corner Fourth and Jay Sts.,
This City.

MANUFACTURERS INDUCEMENTS

Appeal to Money Saving Motives—Four Carloads to Choose From.

Only a store of a high standing in the piano trade, and unlimited buying power could have secured this remarkable piano opportunity for the people of La Crosse and vicinity, from the time honored W. W. Kimball Co. of Chicago. This is the piano sale which commands response and rewards those that heed.

Four carloads of the Genuine New Scale Kimball Pianos, the World's Standard Instrument, have been installed in our warehouses, and must be sold to the consumer during the next ten days.

THESE STANDARD MADE PIANOS are direct from the hands of the expert piano factory inspectors and represent the highest type of piano perfection.

The tremendous shipment includes the latest exclusive 1905 Models, such as Louis XIV, Art Nouveau, Renaissance and Colonial, in all the choicest woods.

The following prices reveal a distinct cut, and early comers get the best selection.

Medium size oak, walnut and mahogany cased pianos, plain but finely finished, regular price, $250; sold this week at $185.

Full size elegantly designed pianos, in all the fancy woods, regular price, $275; going at $210.

High class colonial style, usually sold throughout the country for $300, sale price, $235.

Beautiful boudoir size, standard make, in all woods, $350 value. Several of this pattern may be had at $265. Swell Drawing Room Uprights, ordinarily sold at $375; our price, $285.

This week will not only commemorate the manufacturer's sale of the world renowned Kimball pianos at factory prices, but a final clearance sale of cancelled styles of various makes of new pianos, and used uprights returned from renting in our regular stock. Judge by the brands of values below:

Solmer.

Remember this is the store where every instrument on sale is marked in plain figures and not sold on the old time "get all you can" plan.

There would be nothing extraordinary about these offerings if we could keep on selling such pianos at these prices but when this gigantic shipment is gone and our odds and ends cleaned up the opportunity ceases.

It occurs because we contracted with the largest manufacturer of pianos and organs in the world for this mammoth opening stock and hereafter will handle their entire business throughout our territory in Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin. It will pay you substantially to anticipate your need of an instrument now and take advantage of the truly wonderful low prices tomorrow.

Any man or woman can get installment credit here. We believe in the people and trust them to the limit.

THE TRIUMPH OF THE FAIR.

There was a fair yesterday, in spite of the spite of certain newspapers whose grasping selfishness would kill an infant industry when they thought it at their mercy, in an effort to extort revenue from it.

It rained, and rained at the most unfortunate hour of the morning, but a very satisfactory crowd gathered at the grounds, notwithstanding. Had it rained so hard as to make the attendance light, no doubt these newspapers would have claimed the "credit" for making the La Crosse Interstate fair of A. D. 1905 a failure. As it is, they will likely have to simply regret its success.

However, the boosting of the fair is more in point than the "knocking" of these "public spirited" journals of Light Trust fame. It is a splendid fair—the best ever. It is entertaining, instructive, amusing—what you like. It has something for everybody. The Tribune yesterday expressed the wish that every man and woman in this city might visit it. Yesterday was La Crosse day; if you did not go La Crosse day go tomorrow, and the next day, and the day after that? Make every day of the fair, "La Crosse Day."

Park Store enterprise is again demonstrated. Its window display and decorations in honor of the fair are most excellent. It has done nothing by halves, and it gave as much of a show to the people in the streets last evening as would a paid performance.

Particularly attractive was an electrical display in one of the great Main street windows. A splendid bronze statue is surrounded by three circles of upholstered material, one within the other. Each is studded with variegated lights that fade and revive at regular intervals flashing a constant panorama of brilliant colors before the eye. Within the circle, and back of the bronze, are two revolving stars, also illuminated with colored Edisons. The whole effect is wonderfully attractive, and sets off the merchandise shown in the window to splendid advantage.

The merchants of this city are awake. The entertainments given free in the city streets are novel, high-grade and entertaining. They are doing their share to please the stranger that is within our gates.

All these little things tell, in the long run. They make friends for our merchants, with people from other towns and the country; they cause good feeling and growth of business activity; they are part of the great aggregate of enterprise that makes a foremost city.

QUIPPS & CRANKS & WANTON WILES

Said Mr. Stras to Roland B.
We'll make 'em dig a roll,
Or else we'll put the outfit on the bum.

Imagine their heart anguish
When the outfit didn't dig,
And just the same the consarned people cum.

Horrible, horrible! Mayor Torrance played the wheel! At the fair grounds, before all the people, too! I think the box of candy cost him $1.20, for Tony Reitzel was so confounded lucky.

HEARD AT THE FAIR.

Stranger—Can't I get my lady in on this ticket, Mr. Wing?
Mr. Wing—Not unless the ticket says, "and lady."
But it does, Mr. Wing; now can I get her in?
Yes, er—let me see the ticket.
Mr. Wing looks. Then: "Well, for the man, that's a ticket to the West Salem county fair!"

The shot and shell was screaming
Upon the battle field,
The fusillade was steady everywhere;
The people rose in frenzy
When they saw the soldiers shoot—
As they watched them from the grandstand
At the fair.

—FANNY FAN.

Noted Violinist Coming Here

Miss Eva Baron Hill, London, England, a graduate of Leipzig conservatory and for two years a student of Levick, the world's greatest violin teacher who brought out such artists as Kubelik, Ysaye, etc., will reach this city within a short time to visit Mr. and Mrs. Harry Packman. Miss Hill is a cousin of Mrs. Packman and an effort will be made to induce her to remain in this city for a year. She arrives in New York Saturday and comes almost directly to La Crosse. During her stay she will give recitals at Christ church with Mr. Packman.

The President is entered in the 2:18 trot at Cincinnati tomorrow.

JUST LIFE

JANE EN ME.

Th' sun wuz slow a' sinkin' hind th' church up on th' hill,
We cud hear th' distant ringin' uv th' bells,
Th' croakin' uv th' bullfrog, on th' cryin' whipp'rwill
Mixed their musik with th' story thet th' insects tried t' tell.
Th' landscape stood in dark outline agin' th' line uv gray,
Frum th' pasture comes th' moo-in' uv th' herd thet's out t' browse;
I feel my heart a' bubblin', but I hain't th' neeve t' say—
When Jane en me went out t' fetch th' ceows.

Th' bell-ceow seemed sum fractions, an' it tuk sum liddle time
T' steer her on th' right track in th' lead;
Jane en me, we follered, en I scen them ceows in line,
Sez I, yer like thet bell-ceow, Bill, a start is all ye need.
My heart wuz thumpin' orful, an' I knowed Jane must a' heard,
Fer I felt her hand a' tremblin', an' my luv wuz all aroun'd;
I knowed th' time hed cum fer talk, fer me t' say th' wurd,
When Jane en me went out to fetch the ceows.

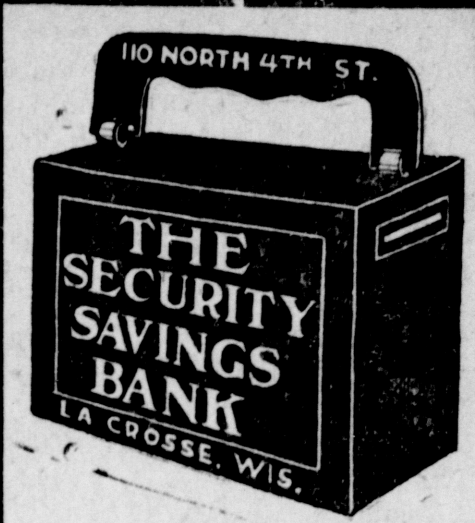

Jane wuz hummin' soft-like, en she turned her face away—
We walked so slow th' moon stole up behind;
Sez I, "Jane, will ye luv me, I dunno much what t' say,
But I love ye, an' I wants ye tu be mine."

Jane, she seemed haf-laffin', but she gives up there en then—
"Ye shud hev asked before, Bill," she allows;
Th' fact is, 'twas so easy, I jes want t' try agen,
When Jane en me goes out t' fetch th' ceows.

KENNEDY-FRITZ NUPTIALS TODAY

John W. Kennedy and Miss Louise Fritz were quietly wedded this morning at the parsonage of Rev. Father White on South Seventh street. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock. James P. Luxem was best man and Miss Emma Miller bridesmaid.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride to relatives and a few intimate friends.

The young couple left on the fast mail at 11:05 for St. Paul, where they will spend a few days and then proceed to Grand Forks, N. D., where they will make their home. The groom has headquarters there as traveling salesman for the Pamperin and Wiggenhorn Cigar company of this city.

Both the young people are well known in this city and have a host of friends who wish them happiness in their wedded life. A large number of presents were received by the couple.

ST. CROIX DRIVES HANDLED 100,000,000 FEET OF LUMBER

The St. Croix drive embracing all logs that are lying on the banks of the river between Nevers dam and Stillwater, reached the boom limits Tuesday night. A little more than 15,000,000 feet were secured, but most of the logs floated in and have already been sorted. The remainder, consisting of about 5,000,000 feet, is in the boom limits and will be sorted next week. The total output for the boom this season will be 100,000,000 feet.

There will be no annual convention of the National guard officers in Milwaukee this year, a two days' school in that city being announced to take the place of the usual gathering.

GET POWER. The Supply Comes From Food.

If we get power from food, why not strive to get all the power we can. That is only possible by use of skillfully selected food that exactly fits the requirements of the body.

Poor fuel makes a poor fire and a poor fire is not a good steam producer.

"From not knowing how to select the right food to fit my needs, I suffered grievously for a long time from stomach troubles," writes a lady from a little town in Missouri.

"It seemed as if I would never be able to find out the sort of food that was best for me. Hardly anything that I could eat would stay on my stomach. Every attempt gave me heart-burn and filled my stomach with gas. I got thinner and thinner until I literally became a living skeleton and in time was compelled to keep to my bed.

"A few months ago I was persuaded to try Grape-Nuts Food, and it had such good effect from the very beginning that I have kept up its use ever since. I was surprised at the ease with which I digested it. It proved to be just what I needed. All my unpleasant symptoms, the heart-burn, the inflated feeling which gave me so much pain disappeared. My weight gradually increased from 98 to 116 lbs., my figure rounded out, my strength came back, and I am now able to do my housework and enjoy it. The Grape-Nuts food did it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

A ten days trial will show anyone some facts about food.

"There's a reason."

Now Just Look At That, Will You!

No matter what you say, it simply looks good enough to eat!

Somehow or other it's got that indescribable air of gentility that you seldom find off of Broadway.

The man who designed it racked his brain for something especially good for this season—and he's a pretty good racker.

Just look at that front, with its spanking good shoulders, its big lapels, its graceful hang.

Just look at that back, with the easy, de-lightful fit; the big ten-inch vents and—it makes us delirious to talk about it.

We have it made up in the best serge we can lay our hands on, and by all that's good and stylish we don't see where it can be improved.

What's that you say? "Can't afford $35 for a suit!"

Why, bless your heart, we don't ask $35. All we ask is $18.00 and $20.00.

DEPOSED AGENT SAYS

HE HAD NO ORDERS TO FORGET

A. R. Emberson, until recently station agent at Stoddard for the La Crosse & Southeastern, when in the city today denied the story printed here to the effect that he had neglected train orders and thereby caused a serious wreck. Mr. Emberson says that while he was deposed on this pretext, there is no truth in the charge, which he proposes to show when he has a hearing this afternoon at the offices of the company.

Mr. Emberson declares that the conductor of the train was the one who was supposed to have the orders, which were supposed to have been delivered to him by Supt. "Pete" Valiar. He declares that no orders were given him at any time and that he could not have forgotten to deliver what he did not have. Mr. Emberson says trains on the Southeastern are run on purely verbal orders, there being no telegraph system or other methods of conveying orders, except through the trainmen as they reach each place.

We Are Exclusive Agents for COLE'S HOT BLAST

Burns Any Fuel

Cole's Hot Blast heats perfectly with hard or soft coal, slack, wood, lignite coal, cobs, any kind of fuel without change of fixtures. This wonderful heater burns the gas half of coal and saves the waste chimney heat of other stoves.

Holds Fire 36 Hours

Cole's Hot Blast is guaranteed to hold fire 36 hours with soft coal or hard coal without attention. Another point even with soft coal the rooms can be heated two hours in the morning with coal put in the stove the night before. Simply open draft.

Most Cleanly

Cole's Hot Blast is air-tight with a smokeless feed door, allowing the use of the cheapest fuel without dust, gas or smoke escaping. The removal of ashes by the dustless ash remover prevents dust or ashes getting on the floor.

Guaranteed

Cole's Hot Blast is guaranteed to remain absolutely air-tight; to maintain uniform heat day and night, to heat rooms in morning with last night's fuel; to hold fire 36 hours; to save one-third fuel over any lower draft stove same size.

If you enjoy the luxury of dressing in warm rooms without having to get up in the cold to build fires and do not want to wear a shawl at the breakfast table you will investigate COLE'S ORIGINAL HOT BLAST to-day.

WHEAT

The movement of Spring wheat to market has been in full swing and materially exceeds that of last year. The Canadian crop is being shipped in large quantities, and exerts a heavy pressure on the absorbing power of foreign markets. Under these circumstances, one would naturally look for a lower price level, but, in spite of free movement, buying by outsiders has been of sufficient strength to give the market a rather stiff undertone. We are looking for, and for some time have expected, that the pressure of new wheat would cause some decline, and with this idea in view we believe traders should be prepared to take advantage of buyers and hard spots to make sales for moderate turns.

The Canadian wheat crop, while large, is not so great an item as to dominate the permanent course of prices, but before its influence is spent it will probably prove of enough importance to depress prices in American markets to a point where good purchases may be made for a long pull. Our idea in counseling the selling side lately is based merely on temporary conditions.

STREET CAR STS- TEM TIED UP.

Traffic on the street railway was tied up several times shortly after 12 o'clock today on account of a break- down of some of the wires on the dynamo at the power house.
About 12:30 the first break-down occurred when the power was shut off for about ten minutes, and this occurred several times up to two o'clock when the wires were repaired.

PANAMA, Sept. 27.—A great fire is raging in the mine at Colon. An appeal was sent to this city for help. A special train bearing firemen and policemen was dispatched.

The fire was extinguished after men caused after great damage. The Isthmian postoffice, two newspaper offices, the government house, the police headquarters, office of the West India Cable company, Armour's es- tablishment, Chinese shops, and 46 houses on Bolivar street were de- stroyed. A great amount of interna- tional registered mail was burned.

Joliet, Ill., Sept. 27.—Joliet was in a state of excitement, keeping the po- lice department busy. There was an all-night seige at Steve Wruk's saloon in an effort to capture a crowd of men who had been disorderly. The police were defied with shotguns, but seven men and a woman were taken at 5 a. m. Wruk, the saloonkeeper, was shot in the arm. Rioters tried to kill the police, throwing stones and firing revolvers.

Barney Holst, a boy, was shot and killed by John Stala, another boy, but this was accidental. Stala was selling the revolver to Holst. In another part of the city Officer Seivert was beaten by a negro.

"To ask timidly is to invite denial. This is one of the elemental things to learn about advertising—for nobody (except the man's wife and his cred- itors) wants to see the last straggler in a procession. The "timid asker," sure of denial, uses timid space, timid phrases—and, in the jargon of the hour he "gets his."
